

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1246

LOT 1246

A Doulton Lambeth stoneware vase, circa 1884, decorated by Eliza Simmance, monogrammed, with floral bouquets against a trellis ground, impressed and incised marks to base, height 27.5cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1246 - In generally good condition. There are a number of nicks to the tube line decoration, particularly on the floral bouquet panels towards to bottom of the vase. Small chip to the underside of the base, largely insignificant.

Created: Tue, 16th November 2021 15:36