

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1374

LOT 1374

A Royal Doulton stoneware vase, first half 20th century, decorated by Hannah Barlow, monogrammed, with a continuous scene of a shepherd and his sheep between foliate borders, incised and impressed marks to base, height 31cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

---

Condition Report

1374 - In generally good condition. A couple of small chips and nibbles to the edge of the foot rim. Some minor crazing in places.

Created: Tue, 16th November 2021 16:03