

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1555

LOT 1555

A Berlin porcelain inkstand, late 19th/early 20th century, in the form of a casket, the cover modelled as Cupid beside a greyhound, the base decorated in relief with four classical panels featuring cherubs, dolphins and Venus, underglaze blue sceptre mark to base, height 16.8cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

1555 - In generally good condition. A very minor firing crack to the rectangular removable well. A couple of tiny nibbles to the edges of the apertures for the pen holders. Some minor wear to the gilding overall.

Created: Tue, 16th November 2021 16:33