

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1362

LOT 1362

A Meissen style Continental porcelain silver mounted bonbonnière/snuffbox, late 18th century, modelled as a white mouse, the hinged cover painted with two cats within a landscape to the exterior and an anthropomorphic cat to the interior, height 5.6cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

1362. In generally good condition. One or two very light scratches to the oval panel on the exterior. Hinge in working order.

Created: Wed, 17th November 2021 13:02