

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1693

LOT 1693

A small English porcelain two-handled footed bowl, probably Spode, early 19th century, of circular shape, painted with fruit and flowers beneath a gilt rim, flanked by goat mask terminal handles, raised on a circular foot, unmarked, diameter excluding handles 9cm.

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1693. Overall crazing. Faint hairline to rim of bowl. Some wear to the gilt on the high points. Some light surface scratching to bowl interior.

Created: Wed, 17th November 2021 13:09