

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1652

LOT 1652

Four Royal Doulton large character jugs, comprising two John Barleycorn, D5327, Toby Philpots, D5736, and Touchstone, D5613, a set of five Beswick graduated flying duck wall plaques, another flying duck wall plaque, a Beswick model of brown mare facing left, No. 976, and a Goebel model of a kingfisher perched on a stem, impressed 'CV123'.

Estimate: £50 - £80

---

Condition Report

2 John Barleycorn - one with minor crazing, otherwise both in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Touchstone - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Philpots - overall crazing to glaze otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Horse - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Kingfisher - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Duck 5960

Duck 8467 - marked 'Foreign'

Duck 5961

Duck 596-2

Duck 596-3

Duck 596-4

The ducks are generally in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, there is some minor crazing. The numbering shows this is not a complete Beswick set with the second largest being marked 'Foreign'.