

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1694

LOT 1694

A group of Doulton stoneware, including a pair of Doulton Lambeth vases, first half 20th century, decorated with a border of stylized flowers and foliage against a banded ground, height 20cm, a three-piece bachelor's tea set, each with silver mount, and a Royal Doulton small jug, decorated with a stylized tree against a mottled green ground, all with impressed marks to bases.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Pair vases - one in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, the other missing a section of sprigged decoration and with two tiny nicks to ribbed detail.

3 piece tea service - milk jug handle repaired, otherwise each piece in good condition.

Green ground jug - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Jug with brambles - crack to handle.

two handled vase - crack to one handle, overall pitting to glaze.

Dewar's flask - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Some very minor crazing and light surface scratches.

Speed Wheel jug - small patch of glaze adhesion to brown neck rim and some speckled brown discolouration to sprigged figures, otherwise ok.

Mug - extensive professional restoration to body.

Created: Fri, 19th November 2021 14:12