

Glassware / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1753

LOT 1753

A large commemorative drinking glass, early 19th century, the bucket bowl engraved with King George IV's cypher within a rose and thistle surround, height 19.5cm, together with an oversized drinking glass, mid-19th century, presentation engraved, height 17cm, a goblet, engraved with the 'Regalia of Scotland', height 15.2cm, and a small group of other glasses.

Estimate: £70 - £100

Condition Report

George IV cypher - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Oversize glass - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Regalia of Scotland - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Engraved 'England has done her duty' - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Boot - small vertical scratch to interior, otherwise ok.

2 jelly glasses - taller with small chip to rim.

2 glasses - both In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Faceted glass - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

4 salts - each in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Fri, 19th November 2021 14:21