

Glassware / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1774

LOT 1774

An unusual mead glass, mid-18th century, the rounded bowl on a plain stem and conical foot, height 16cm, bearing 'R.G.T.' paper label and 'Ron & Mary Thomas Collection' paper label to base.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

The foot is a good size with typical wear although it does have a small pinhead sized nick to the very edge. There are a number of small scratches to the bowl but otherwise the glass is in good order.
