

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1411

LOT 1411

A Spode part dinner service, early 19th century, decorated with sprays of stylized flowers, comprising two square tureens and covers with gilt foliate handles, a square bowl, ten dinner plates, eight dessert plates and eight soup bowls, printed and impressed factory marks and painted '2963' to bases (faults).

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1411. Generally some light surface wear/scratching. Minor crazing.

Tureens and covers - both tureen with crazing and staining.

Bowl - crack to rim, some heavy wear to interior.

Dinner plates - one with some staining, others ok.

Dessert plates - one badly cracked, others ok.

Soup bowls - ok.

Created: Mon, 22nd November 2021 12:32