

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1681

LOT 1681

A Mintons turquoise ground bottle vase, late 19th century, enamelled with stems of red berries and white flowers, with gilt geometric rims, printed and impressed marks to base, height 22cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

1681. Some heavy wear in places to the gilt rims. A few tiny nicks to the footrim. Overall crazing, some of the craze lines appear to be cracks, with lifting of the glaze nearest the foot. These cracks/craze lines feel uneven under a fingernail.

Created: Mon, 22nd November 2021 12:42