

Glassware / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1761

LOT 1761

A large cut glass punch bowl, early 20th century, the circular bowl with diamond shaped hobnail panels and stylized fans above a waisted stem and star cut circular foot, diameter 28cm, together with a group of other glassware, including four decanters and stoppers, a small Waterford bowl with turnover rim, various glasses and salts.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

1761. Two decanter stoppers with chips.
Chips to footrim of amber coloured beaker.
Chip to square base of large rummer.
Chip to base of one salt.
Tiny nick to rim of large punch.
All other pieces in generally good condition.

Created: Mon, 22nd November 2021 15:03