LOT 1295

A pair of large Continental Faience pâte-sur-pâte floor vases, late 19th/early 20th century, profusely decorated with birds and flowers, one signed 'Barnoin' to side of base, height 83cm.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

1295. 1) glaze losses on the high points, noticeable on the rim. An area of glaze loss near the base approx 3cm in length. General scuffing and light scratching. Overall crazing.

2) some minor losses on the high points. One or two scuffs/scratches to the body resulting in glaze losses. Overall crazing.

Both are fundamentally in good condition for size and age.
