

Glassware / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1728

LOT 1728

A collection of German Eisch art glass, second half 20th century, including various Peacock's Eye series vases, one of globular design against a black ground, height 17cm, and a Julia Eichinger-Eisch plate, decorated with two abstract figures, length 31cm, together with a book 'Die Eisch-Hutte' by Katharina Eisch.

Estimate: £80 - £120

---

Condition Report

1728. Eisch winged elephant - chip to wing, small nibbles to base.

All other pieces are generally in good condition, minor light scratching in places. No chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Tue, 23rd November 2021 13:39