

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1275

LOT 1275

A small group of mid-19th century and later decorative ceramics, including a pair of Dresden porcelain square tea caddies and covers, each painted with floral sprays, height 12.5cm, an English porcelain teacup and saucer, decorated in the Imari palette, and two Limoges pillboxes with hinged lids.

Estimate: £80 - £100

---

Condition Report

1275. Cobalt blue cup and saucer - minor wear to interior of saucer.

Watering cans - lacking stoppers.

Saucer plate (floral) - faint star crack to base, minor wear.

Gilt and pink floral plate - some heavier wear to gilt.

All other pieces in generally good condition, with light wear only, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Tue, 23rd November 2021 14:36