

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1568

LOT 1568

A diminutive English porcelain teapot and cover, probably Minton, second half 19th century, of Sèvres style with gilt enriched moulded spout, painted with violets beneath green banding, height 9.5cm, together with a similar teapot and cover, painted in puce with cherubs, height 11cm, a pearlware blue floral painted diminutive teapot and cover and a Coalbrookdale example (minor faults and restoration).

Estimate: £50 - £80

Condition Report

1568. Sevres style green banding - couple of chips to spout.

Puce cherubs - minor wear to gilt on high points.

Blue/white teapot - glued lid to body, the lid is chipped, some heavy pitting/discolouration to handle. Some craze lines and staining.

Encrusted - lid restored, handle restored, some losses to flowerheads and foliage. Some wear to gilt.

Created: Tue, 23rd November 2021 15:23