

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1261

LOT 1261

A mixed group of mostly Worcester porcelain, second half 18th century, including small plates and dishes in the Prunus Root, Three Flowers, The Fence and Pine Cone Group patterns, various printed and painted marks (some faults).

Estimate: £150 - £200

Condition Report

1261 - Slop bowl - firing crack to interior.

Saucer, 11cm diameter - ok.

Saucer, 14cm diameter - hairline crack and crazed.

Fluted saucer, 13.5cm diameter - chips to rim, one near a manufacturing blemish.

Largest lid - chipped finial, one petal lacking.

Lobed dish, 15.5cm diameter - ok.

Floral lobed dish, 16cm diameter - some light staining.

Plate, 16.5cm diameter - ok.

Lobed largest dish, 17cm diameter - some staining to rim and edge of interior.

Teabowl - cracked and chipped.

Other teabowl - ok, tiny chip to rim.

Smaller lids - tiny chip to finial.

Overall some typical surface wear and rubbing/pitting to rims and interiors. All measurements approx.

Created: Tue, 23rd November 2021 15:25