

British and Continental Ceramics / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1674

LOT 1674

A Katzhütte Parian figure of the Shepherd Boy, after Bertel Thorvaldsen, first half 20th century, modelled as a seated shepherd boy holding a crook with his dog sat beside him, raised on an oval base, impressed mark to base, height 22cm, together with a Parian figure of the Wounded Gladiator, after the antique, 20th century, No. '6626/12', length 20cm.

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

1674. Both pieces in good condition with no significant damage or repairs. Both a bit dusty and dirty and would benefit from a clean.

Created: Wed, 24th November 2021 15:22