

Glassware / Thu, 25th November 2021 / Lot 1725

LOT 1725

A large Lithyalin glass vase, probably French, late 19th century, of high-shouldered form with everted rim, on a circular foot, of marbled sealing wax red colouring, unmarked, height 26.7cm.

Estimate: £120 - £180

Condition Report

1725. Two small nibbles/chips to the interior top rim edge and another small chip to the exterior top rim edge. Typical wear to the base, with a very small nick to the rim edge, largely insignificant.

A few scratches to the body, one in particular is fairly deep, approx 1.5cm in length about 3/4 of the way down the body.

Otherwise in generally good condition.

Created: Thu, 25th November 2021 09:44