LOT 1298

A KPM porcelain plaque, late 19th century, after Pierre-Auguste Cot, depicting The Bayadere, the female dancer playing a tambourine held above her head, painted 'Bayadere after P-A Cot' and impressed KPM with sceptre mark to reverse, 16cm x 23.5cm, framed.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

1298. In generally good condition overall.

There are a few areas on the front leg which have seen wear, resulting in some scuffing and losses to the blue enamels.

There are a few light scratches to the plaque either side of the figure on the curtain and stonework.

The back of the frame has been removed to access the marks, but is present with the Lot.
