LOT 2504

A late George III red gilt-tooled leather table-top writing cabinet, the pagoda top with hinged lid above two doors opening to reveal three drawers designed as six book spines, the lower drawer with writing slope, the sides with applied gilt brass handles, raised on scrolling feet, height 29cm, width 29cm (faults).

Estimate: £200 - £400

Condition Report

2504. The whole exterior has overall areas of loss to the leather surface, with other areas either cracked or peeling away. Structurally sound but really very worn. Typically the interior is in much better order, with some minimal wear and also lacking an inkwell.
