Condition Report

50. In good condition. Surface dirt and a general yellowing throughout. Also craquelure just starting. One small splatter of emulsion paint to the background on the right with a few heavier cracks near the lily on the right. UV examination highlights light washes of overpainting to the background. Frame ok, but with repair to one scroll to the top section and another two scrolls on the left. One small piece of loss to the left section but barely noticeable. Small fissures to the gilt. The inner slip has three cracks, two of which are a bit more substantial.
