LOT 522

A Victorian seed pearl necklace, the front with a tassel drop of flowerbud form, the petals encasing a faceted colourless paste, on a gold and enamelled oval clasp, centred by a half-pearl, detailed '15ct', length 45.5cm, with a case.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

522. The seed pearls generally have quite a good lustre but because they are quite small this is subdued. One pearl is missing from the larger pearls above the pendant bud. The threading appears fragile and re-threading would be recommended. The enamel to the clasp is in good condition.
