LOT 784

A Victorian gold and silver set, garnet, half-pearl and diamond ring, designed as two interlocking hearts, one set with an oval cut garnet, the other with a half-pearl within a surround of rose cut diamonds, below a diamond set surmount, inscribed within the shank 'In Memoriam... ab.25th Jan 1864', unmarked, weight 3.3g, ring size approx K, with a case.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

784. Some surface wear to the garnet. The half-pearl is in good condition but possibly a replacement cultured pearl. One diamond lacking from the left hand top and possibly two diamonds lacking from the central area above the two hearts. Shank has been resized in the past with some loss of the inscription within the shank. The silver setting is heavily tarnished. Case exterior lid rubbed.
