LOT 2550

A late 19th/early 20th century mahogany double-cased octagonal sailor's shell valentine, the two glazed compartments enclosing geometric patterns of various shells, one side modelled with a heart, width of each side 25cm.

Estimate: £800 - £1,200

Condition Report

2550. The vast majority of the shells look intact and untouched, there appears to be two or three loose shells on the border just below the heart. Some glue residue around the moulded glazing trims and one of these trims is missing. Large crack to one side of the case and some small repairs to the case edges.
