LOT 178

After Robert Alexander Hillingford - The Turning Point at Waterloo, and Napoleon on Horseback, a pair of 20th century oils on canvas, each 75cm x 126cm, both within gilt frames.

Estimate: £300 - £500

Condition Report

178. Both canvases have been relined, cleaned and restored. UV examination highlights thin washes of overpainting to the skies and touches of overpainting elsewhere. Both have an uneven varnish that has dulled inconsistently.

Both frames are fairly modern but have considerable cracking to the composition. Both also have some significant cracking at a few of the corner joins.
