LOT 1201

A late 19th century French brass four glass mantel clock with eight day movement striking on a gong, the backplate with 'Marti et Cie' mark, with mercury compensated pendulum, the two piece enamel dial with Brocot escapement and inscribed 'R. Scott Leeds & Paris', the case with bevelled glass panels, on bracket feet, height 27cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

1201. The clock is in generally good condition. The case has typical surface wear and scratches, as can be seen in the images on our website. The glass panels are in good condition and the two-piece dial is in good order. The movement winds smoothly and it runs, and the strike mechanism is also working, but please be aware we give no guarantees to working order or reliability of any clock or watch.
