LOT 2501

A late Victorian Neoclassical Revival terracotta Young's Patent oil lamp by Hinks & Son, fitted with a later pink glass shade, height 48cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

2501. The white 'jewelled' decoration around the rim of the reservoir is very worn and there are four pieces of the 'jewelled' decoration missing immediately below the burner. Shade has been ground down slightly at the base and has small chips around this area. General age related wear consistent with age and use. No obvious cracks or restoration.
