LOT 2549

A late 19th/early 20th century ivory and red stained travelling chess set, height of king 3.5cm, mounted within a folding mahogany case, width 25.7cm, together with a cased set of bone dominoes.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

2549. Red chess pieces - several chips to collar on queen and king.

White chess pieces - several chips to collar of bishop and king. Hole drilled in top of castle.

Mahogany case has been 'restored' fairly badly with glue residue and varnish everywhere.

Dominoes have general age related wear, as does the case.
