LOT 1009

A Chinese famille rose enamelled porcelain vase, mark of Kangxi but probably 20th century or later, the swollen body painted with a monkey in a tree above a grey deer below, the flared neck with lotus and scrolling tendrils, underglaze blue four-character mark to base, height 21cm.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1009. Good condition, very small chip to edge of footrim, otherwise no significant damage or repairs. Few minor glaze blemishes, otherwise decoration is good and vibrant.
