LOT 1105

A Tibetan damascened iron circular breastplate with cast and pierced decoration, heightened in gilt, diameter 14.6cm, together with a pair of Tibetan iron stirrups with pierced decoration, heights 13.5cm.

Provenance: from the estate of a West Sussex collector.

Estimate: £60 - £100

Condition Report

1105 - Breastplate - in generally good condition, small repair to edge where central design meets outer ring. Otherwise typical wear and some rusting.

Near pair of stirrups - generally good order but with wear and very dirty. Please note they are not a pair, but a near pair as the designs on each are not exactly the same.
