

Asian and Islamic Ceramics and Works of Art / Thu, 27th January 2022 / Lot 1218

LOT 1218

A group of Chinese snuff bottles, mostly 20th century, including a malachite bottle of rounded rectangular form, one side carved in relief with a dragon, height 5.9cm, and a crackle glazed porcelain bottle of flattened ovoid form, painted and gilt with an immortal opposing lines of black text and red seals, underglaze blue four-character mark to base, height 5.8cm.

Estimate: £100 - £200

Condition Report

1218. Malachite bottle - minor scuff to rim, otherwise good condition, no chips, cracks or repairs.

Crackle glazed porcelain bottle - good condition.

Fish bottle - good condition.

Hair crystal bottle - good condition, few minor scuffs.

Imitation agate glass bottle - good condition.

Porcelain relief moulded bottle - good condition, typical light surface scratches and wear.

All other bottles appear to be in generally good order, but some with minor nicks, wear etc, some missing stoppers.

If condition is required on any of the other pieces, please specify which ones so we can help you.

Created: Tue, 25th January 2022 10:39