LOT 1050

A rare Chinese Imari export porcelain circular dish, Kangxi period, the centre painted and gilt with an unrolled hand scroll, filled with a prunus branch and bamboo around a single famille verte enameled bird in flight, reserved against a ground of pencilled underglaze blue scrolling tendrils issuing gilt and iron red lotus flowerheads, unmarked, diameter 35.5cm (minor chips to underside of rim). Note: a similar smaller dish of the same pattern is illustrated by William R. Sargent in 'Treasures of Chinese Export Ceramics: from the Peabody Essex Museum', 2012, page 188, No. 87. Pieces with this decoration are also in the Porzellansammlung and in the Dresden Collection.

Estimate: £500 - £1,000

Condition Report

1050. Generally good condition with no cracks or repairs. Some minor chips to underside of rim, but nothing of any real consequence. Typical light surface scratches to glaze and some wear to gilt and enamels.
