

Silver and Plate / Wed, 16th February 2022 / Lot 350

LOT 350

A Victorian silver teapot of circular low-bellied bombé form, the hinged lid with rose bud and leaf stem finial, the body chased and engraved with flowers and scrolls, flanked by a foliate capped scroll handle and similarly decorated spout, London 1850 by Walter Morrissey, weight 690.9g, height 16cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

350. One pin on the bottom of the handle is out to one side so needs repositioning. Indistinct presentation engraving to one side. Several small dents to the body, but no obvious repairs, general age related wear.

Created: Wed, 9th February 2022 15:43