

Silver and Plate / Wed, 16th February 2022 / Lot 429

LOT 429

A set of six late Victorian silver cups, each cylindrical body engraved with opposing crest, together with four matching saucers, London 1892 by William Hutton & Sons (Edward Hutton), and two matched saucers, London 1897 by Charles Stuart Harris, total weight 816g, height of cup 5.4cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

429. All six cups have slightly misshapen rims. One saucer has a crease/dent to the rim. General age related wear.

Created: Wed, 9th February 2022 15:51