

Jewellery / Wed, 16th February 2022 / Lot 662

LOT 662

A gold, ruby, red spinel and diamond brooch in a scroll pierced openwork design, claw set with the cushion cut red spinel to the centre, otherwise set with cushion cut rubies and diamonds, unmarked, weight 4.7g, width 2.8cm, with an associated case.

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

662. The red spinel has a few inclusions some of which are surface reaching. The diamonds generally draw colour. The roller hook clasp is probably replaced. The piece is otherwise in good condition. Suggested age, circa 1910.

Created: Thu, 10th February 2022 10:55