

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Tue, 15th February 2022 / Lot 1842

LOT 1842

An early 19th century percussion musket with sighted barrel, barrel length 99.5cm, East India Company crest to lock, overall Indian armoury marks, with brass furniture and steel ramrod.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

1842. Gun is in overall poor condition, with repairs/restoration done at some time, bruises, marks and split to stock. Lock plate altered, maybe replaced. Half and full locks functioning. Cannot provide condition report of the bore.

Created: Fri, 11th February 2022 09:59