

Firearms and Edged Weapons / Tue, 15th February 2022 / Lot 1843

LOT 1843

A 19th century three-band percussion rifle with sighted barrel, barrel length 99cm, the line border engraved lockplate marked 'V.R' below crown and '1858 Tower', full-stocked with brass furniture, with associated leather shoulder strap.

Estimate: £200 - £300

---

Condition Report

1843. Splits to stock with poor restoration. Rear slight is working. Barrel is in a poor state internally but does not appear rifled. Overall poor standard of restoration carried out some time ago. 140cm long overall.

Created: Mon, 14th February 2022 11:12