Condition Report

416. The hip flask is in generally fairly good condition with no significant damage to glass, just typical light wear/scratches and some minor discolouration to bottom of interior. The silver cup in good condition, just typical light wear and surface scratches. Good clear hallmarks. The hinge cover also in good condition with typical light wear, but the catch on the collar which secures the turning cover and locks it down tightly has sheared off, so the cover does not close properly.
