

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1384

LOT 1384

A large Ridgway lavender blue ground jug, circa 1815-20, sprigged in white with a gryphon and cupid design amidst foliate scrollwork, flanking an urn beneath the mask spout, unmarked, height 17.3cm, together with a similar smaller example with gilt detail, height 13.2cm, and a Ridgway white china jug and cover with lavender blue sprigged decoration, marked '468' to base, height 19cm. Note: similar jugs are illustrated by R.K. Henrywood in 'An Illustrated Guide to British Jugs', p. 102, pls. 283 and 284.

Estimate: £50 - £70

Condition Report

Gilt decorated jug with 3.5cm long vertical haircrack to rim behind handle, otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration, there is typical light wear to the gilding commensurate with age and use. Large lilac ground jug - small area of professional restoration to rim behind/beside handle which incorporates a little part of the thumb rest of the handle. In addition there are at least 5 long vertical haircracks visible primarily to the jug interior but then once followed visible to the exterior too. Jug and cover - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Created: Tue, 1st March 2022 12:09