

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1450

LOT 1450

A William De Morgan Sunset and Moonlight Suite triple lustre bowl, by Fred Passenger, late 19th/early 20th century, painted to the interior with a lion beneath a band of hearts and leaves, a wide border of vertical stiff leaves to the exterior, painted 'F.P.' monogram to base, diameter 12.8cm.

Estimate: £600 - £800

---

Condition Report

The bowl is in good condition overall with no cracks or restoration.

There is a minuscule nick to the rim edge exterior a couple of millimetres by a millimetre or so, and some small spots of glaze loss/wear to the rim circumference, the latter only really being noticeable on closer inspection.

There are some typical minor surface scratches primarily to the bowl interior.

Created: Tue, 1st March 2022 14:08