

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1501

LOT 1501

A Derek Davis studio pottery stoneware vase, of bulbous shape with purple glazed neck over pink above bands of oatmeal and blue, painted mark to base, height 11cm, together with a Derek Davis brown speckled green glazed cylindrical vase, height 9.8cm, and another studio pottery vase.

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Purple Davis vase - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. The neck rim has been manufactured by the potter at an angle.

Speckled glaze Davis vase - crazing to the glaze otherwise in good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Other vase - In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration. Has been used as a candle holder at some point as covered in quite a bit of wax.

Created: Tue, 1st March 2022 15:08