LOT 1549

A Staffordshire pottery figure group, mid to late 19th century, modelled as a girl riding a horse across a bridge, accompanied by a male figure seated alongside, height 24cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

Overall fine crazing to the glaze. No chips or restoration but there is a crack around the middle of the horses front left leg. There is also some typical minor flaking to the enamels, primarily the black and the brown.
