

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1672

LOT 1672

A Royal Dux Art Nouveau bowl, early 20th century, modelled as two scantily clad maidens on a large shell, raised on a naturalistic base, applied pink triangle mark and impressed numerals '1066', height 37cm.

Estimate: £80 - £120

Condition Report

In good condition overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

There is a tiny firing crack to the rim edge of the shell opposite the figures, nothing untoward or terrible.

Typical minor wear to the gilding.

Created: Wed, 2nd March 2022 10:42