LOT 1548

A pair of Staffordshire pottery figures, mid to late 19th century, modelled as a man and woman, each holding a basket of fish and standing in a boat, heights 19cm and 20.5cm (woman's neck glued).

Estimate: £100 - £150

Condition Report

Man - minor manufacturer's firing crack and tiny chip to base edge, nothing untoward.

Woman - glued repair to neck and missing tail of fish held in left hand, sizeable but normal manufacturer's firing crack to underside of base at one end.
