

British and Continental Ceramics / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1665

LOT 1665

A Royal Worcester two-handled square dish, circa 1923, painted by H. Price, signed, with a still life fruit study, flanked by gilt scroll handles, puce printed factory mark to base, length 28cm.

Estimate: £150 - £250

---

Condition Report

1665. A light scratch on the left side running across the raspberries, but only noticeable in the light. A few very minor marks to the decoration on the plums. Overall the plate is in good condition, with no chips, cracks or repairs.

Created: Thu, 10th March 2022 08:56