LOT 1740

A pair of orange colourway striped Studio Range Whitefriars vases, circa 1970, designed by Peter Wheeler, of compressed bulbous shape, one with original paper label, height 10.5cm.

Estimate: £200 - £300

Condition Report

Both vases are in good order overall with no cracks, chips or restoration.

Each has a number of surface scratches/digs which I would suggest are slightly more significant than general wear but are only really noticeable on close inspection under a strong light.

One of the vases has an original Whitefriars label - this vase is significantly heavier and more thickly walled than the other example - I suggest this is purely down to their handmade nature. This vase also has some striated colour to the inner rim edge, shown in images 5 and 6 on our website

Both has typical wear to the foot.
