

Art Pottery / Thursday, 17th March 2022 / Lot 2444

LOT 2444

A Reginald Wells Coldrum Pottery vase, circa 1910-24, the gently swollen cylindrical body covered in a blue glaze, impressed 'CHELSEA COLDRVM' to base, height 25cm (minor haircrack to rim), together with another Coldrum vase of bulbous shape with a running magenta glaze over a streaked grey glaze, impressed 'COLDRVM' to base, height 21.5cm.

Estimate: £250 - £350

Condition Report

2444. Reginald Wells Coldrum vase - hairline crack to rim (approx 3cm long). Two small firing faults to the body which resemble hairline cracks, but are only visible on the exterior.

Bulbous Coldrum vase - firing imperfection to body, otherwise in good condition.

Created: Tue, 8th March 2022 14:32