

Glassware / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1732

LOT 1732

A Continental memoriam glass, dated 1825, of faceted cylindrical form, engraved with flowers above cut leaves, the base inset with a disc inscribed with verse to one side and a view of St Stephen's Cathedral, Vienna, to the other, height 14cm, together with a group of other engraved glassware, including a 'Jacobite' wine glass bowl (broken from stem and foot which are lacking), a wine with George III crowned monogram, raised on a later silver foot, and a pair of small decanters with abbot hat surmounted armorials, height 10.5cm (faults).

Estimate: £150 - £250

Condition Report

Memoriam glass - approx 0.5cm long triangular shaped chip to top rim edge exterior, typical wear to foot, otherwise ok with some scratches to the interior.

'Jacobite' wine glass bowl - bowl ok but detached from stem and foot.

George III monogram glass - bowl rim with 2 chips, one partly polished out, foot missing and replaced with later plaster foot with silver mount.

Pair abbot hat decanters - both cloudy, one with fault to neck in form of dark fissure.

Cylindrical glass with monogram - surface scratches but ok.

Small plate - probably previously mounted, heavily scratched overall.

Square decanter with white metal rim - the rim is removable and has minor chips beneath it, the mount has a screw top but nothing to screw onto it, otherwise ok.

Jug with plated handle - plating a bit rubbed, some minor chips to side edges.

Baluster stem engraved glass - chip to exterior rim edge and collar beneath bowl.

St Joseph glass - ok

Beaker with bridge - ok

Beaker with buildings - ok

Pair wines with fern decoration - ok

Flared octagonal beaker - minor bruise to foot

Wine with stylised foliage - ok

Dated small mug - ok

Tumbler - ok

Faceted mug - small chip to lower handle terminal

Double bowled vessel on foot - bowls cloudy and cut down.