

Glassware / Thursday, 10th March 2022 / Lot 1802

LOT 1802

An Italian Murano glass vase in the manner of Salviati, early 20th century, modelled as a clear dolphin with gold aventurine flecks on a domed circular base, supporting a baluster two-handled vase with vertical blue twisted and latticino thread decoration, height 21cm, together with a Venetian glass dish, diameter 18.3cm.

Estimate: £40 - £60

Condition Report

1802. The vase appears to be in generally good condition with no significant damage or repairs. No water staining to interior.

Dish also in good condition.

Created: Wed, 9th March 2022 10:30